

Job Description and Tasks of the ESC Volunteer “Socio-Educational Activities”

Presentation of the Hosting Organization:

The Centres for the Training of Active Education Methods (CEMÉA), a movement of Popular Education and New Education, is a non-profit organization officially recognized as complementary to the school system and of public utility.

To share and make these ideas accessible to as many people as possible, the CEMÉA have chosen a key tool: training. They primarily operate in the fields of education, community activities, health, and social action.

For years, the CEMÉA have been carrying out social and collective projects. Their activist goals aim to build a more inclusive and equitable society, in partnership with local, national, European, and international institutions, both public and non-governmental.

Workplace: CEMÉA Nord-Pas de Calais - 11 Rue Ernest DECONYNCK - 59000 LILLE – France

General mission: Socio-Cultural Animation within the School Sector

Detailed tasks:

With the support of a team of volunteers and employees, in a process of gradual responsibility, the volunteer will carry out various activities:

- Promote their language and culture through workshops co-constructed with the CEMÉA School team for a school audience, and encourage student mobility across Europe.
- Contribute to the educational, pedagogical, and civic activities carried out by the CEMÉA in schools, middle schools, and high schools, depending on the volunteer's knowledge and skills development goals:
 - Projects on ecological transition education
 - Projects in the field of arts education
 - Projects in the field of sports
 - Intercultural projects
- Support for socio-cultural animation within the Europe and International division of CEMÉA

Nord-Pas de Calais during:

- International meetings
- Exchanges between young people or animation professionals
- Intercultural evenings
- Support for the School team in the animation and revitalization of associative life
- Contribution to the organization of social, cultural, and/or educational events within the organization, promoting public participation in the local area
- Participation in the reception of interns and high school students from national and international partner organizations of CEMÉA NPDC (incoming mobility)
- Participation in communication related to events and activities at CEMÉA (posts for social media and articles for the CEMÉA NPDC website)

Depending on their skills and expertise, the volunteer may be encouraged to carry out a personal project of their own initiative, in connection with the CEMÉA project.

Based on their commitment and needs, training will be offered to strengthen their skills and refine their professional project.

Candidate Profile:

Motivation, dynamisme, sens du relationnel et de l'accueil, ouverture à l'autre, maîtrise des outils numériques, pratique l'Anglais (la pratique de l'Espagnol ou d'une autre langue serait un plus)

Hosting arrangement:

- The European volunteer will be accommodated in Lille
- He/She will have access to the internet and free transportation.
- He/She will have a bank account opened in their name.
- He/She will receive a monthly allowance for food in the form of a grant, along with pocket money.

Training during the mission:

Depending on their commitment and needs, training related to socio-cultural animation will be offered to strengthen their skills and refine their professional project.

- First Aid Training Level 1 (PSC1)
- Introduction to language and intercultural animation
- Training for mobility preparation workshops (individual or group)
- Training in cultural animation

Mission Start: May 2025

Mission Duration: 8 to 12 months

Contacts : Rachel PELLIZZARI rpellizzari@cemeanpdc.org